QUEENS HISTORIC PROPERTIES FUND

A not-for-profit loan fund for the restoration of historic buildings.

- A joint program of the Queens Historical Society and the New York Landmarks Conservancy.
- Loan funds may be used for exterior restoration work, interior structural work, and/or systems upgrades (such as fire protection) to ensure the long-term preservation of the property, as well as other approved project costs.
- The minimum loan amount is $15,000 and the maximum is $50,000.
- Interest rates are generally below-market, and repayment terms are kept to the shortest period possible.
- Loans must be secured by appropriate collateral.
- Loans are accompanied by project management by Landmarks Conservancy staff.
- Eligible properties must be located within the borough of Queens and must be within a New York City or National Register Historic District, or an individually designated New York City landmark, or listed or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places.
- Properties can be used for any purposes-residential, commercial, religious, institutional, etc.
