FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mid-Hudson New York Congregations Open Doors to the Community for New York Landmarks Conservancy 2025 Sacred Sites Open House - “Building for Eternity: Religious Architecture and Artisans” on May 17 & 18

Poughkeepsie and Cragmoor Sites to Participate in Statewide Event

The New York Landmarks Conservancy is proud to host its Annual Sacred Sites Open House, “CoBuilding for Eternity: Religious Architecture and Artisans,” welcoming visitors to explore the extraordinary architecture, art and history of world-class houses of worship, on May 17 & 18. Participating congregations will showcase their buildings, histories, cultural and community programs through lectures, musical performances, and special guided tours. Sacred Sites Open House is a free, state-wide event giving visitors an opportunity to discover New York’s remarkable and diverse religious institutions and view their artistic and historical treasures. This year’s Open House event highlights the incredible work of artisans across the state.

To date, congregations participating from the Mid-Hudson NY region in Sacred Sites Open House on Saturday, May 17 and Sunday, May 18, 2025, include:

Cragmoor

- Cragmoor Stone Church, 280 Henry Road, Open Saturday, May 17 and Sunday, May 18, 8:00am to 10:00pm

Poughkeepsie

About The New York Landmarks Conservancy

The New York Landmarks Conservancy, a private non-profit organization, has led the effort to preserve and protect New York City's architectural legacy for over 50 years. Since its founding, the Conservancy has loaned and granted more than $60 million, which has leveraged more than $900 million in more than 1,300 restoration projects throughout New York, revitalizing communities, providing economic stimulus and supporting local jobs. The Conservancy has also offered countless hours of pro bono technical advice to building owners, both nonprofit organizations and individuals. The Conservancy's work has saved more than a thousand buildings across the City and State, protecting New York's distinctive architectural heritage for residents and visitors alike today, and for future generations.
